About Footscape

Footscape is a health promotion charity that recognises disadvantaged communities are predisposed to debilitating foot pathology and endeavours to assist affected individuals sustain quality of life. Our projects include:

1. Children's Orthotic Project: Footscape has developed partnerships with several Community Health Services in Melbourne to fund orthoses for financially disadvantaged children encountering foot problems.
2. Shoes for the Needy Project: Footscape is collating second-hand shoes and new socks for homeless persons.
3. Provision of pro bono Podiatry services for recipients of care at the Asylum Seeker Resource Centre.
4. Footscape is promoting Podiatry principles and practices to help address diabetic foot wounds in Nauru.
